IN PACED RACEWright Captures Pursuit Grind
From Giles—Big Crowd
Witnesses Sport.

In spite of the threatening rain, the cycle fans turned out in full force last night and overflowed into the arena to see the finish of the races postponed from the night before on account of the downpour. Ere the races were half over it began to sprinkle and for a few minutes it looked as if another postponement was inevitable. Then the clouds cleared and the program was rushed through.

Hardy Downing proved too much for Wilcox in the five-mile motor-paced race, the feature of the evening. In justice to Wilcox, however, it should be said the pacing was none the less, which made it difficult for him to follow at the clip set by Downing. In the second mile Wilcox was "swung off" on one of the turns, and by the time he settled down to work again Downing had him lapped. From this point on Wilcox held his own and at the finish was going good, a little more than a lap behind Downing.

One of the best pursuit races of the season was the contest between Giles and Wright. For nearly five miles it was a question of which would win. Then Giles began to weaken and Wright, still riding strong, soon pulled him down.

In the mile handicap, professional, the scratch men were out of it, owing to a puncture by McFarland on the second lap which broke up the team work of Downing, Samuelson and McFarland in their race. It was announced during the race that Samuelson and McFarland would meet for the first time this season in an Australian pursuit race on Friday night.

The finish of the two-mile lap, amateur, was one of the best of the season, a bunch of five abreast fighting it out to the tape. Lawrence made a great sprint on the last lap, but could not overcome the leaders, as he had to ride to the top of the bank to get around.

It was announced during the race that Samuelson and McFarland would meet for the first time this season in an Australian pursuit race on Friday night.

Match Australian pursuit—Wright defeated Giles, four miles, 1 lap, 70 yards. Time—5:27.5.

One-third mile record trial—Lawrence. Time—34.5, making a new record for the track.

Mile handicap, professional—West, 80 yards; Mitten, 10 yards; De Mara, 70 yards; Walker, 10 yards. Time—1:48.5.

Two-mile lap amateur—Giles, Lawrence, Wright. Time—4:03.

Five-mile motor-paced match—Downing won Wilcox. Time—5:37.5.
